Date and time of statement

Present at time of statement

I, John (NMN) Swenszkowski now give this statement to Inv. R.R. Scruton Oswego C. Sheriff's Dept.

I am 42 years of age, born on the 5th day of June, 1951

I live at RD #8 Box 349 Maiden Lane Rd. Oswego, N.Y. 13126

Yesterday April 3, 1994 Easter Sunday. I was at my girlfriends house on Hulbert Rd. N/O Mexico. I was leaving to go home and I looked at the clock on the wall and it was about 6:35 A.M. The clock had not been set forward for the time change and her clock is usually about five minutes fast. I drove to Eggelston Rd and turned right onto Eggelston Rd. and drove to Rt. #104. At the intersection of Eggelston Rd. and Rt. #104 there was a van in front of me. It was a light colored van pretty beat up and rusty. The van turned left onto Rt. #104 and so did I. The van was going very slow so I passed it. It

I drove to the D & W store at Rt. #104 and Rt. #104-B. I went in and I bought two Syracuse Sunday papers and a pack of Marlboro's. I don't know the girl that was behind the counter as I am not a regular customer, but the girl had on a grey (I think) Syracuse sweat shirt. There was no one else in the store that I saw. I paid her and I left. When I was going out the door there was a white male walking into the store. He was about 5'7" or 5'8" tall thin ~~beard~~ build with a mustache and a 2 or 3 day beard. Also he had a ball cap pulled down low. When I walked passed him I said Hi and he said something back, I don't know what. JS

When I got outside the van that I had passed was parked in front of me. The first part of the plate number was PU55. I put the papers in my car and opened my pack of cigarettes. I took one out and sat down in my car. I didn't light it, I started my car and the van was starting to pull out also. We both stopped and he waited so I pulled around him and left.

I drive a 1993 Mazda RX7 red.
